

TWO RIVERS GOLF CLUB NEWSLETTER

May 2019

TRGC had two tournaments in April. The first one, at Ancil Hoffman, came after a week of rainy, cold weather. We were very fortunate to have no rain the day of the tournament and even a little sun. As always, Ancil was in great shape. Our most recent event was a partner's best ball tournament at the Lincoln Hills (Hills course). Finally, spring has arrived--the temperatures were close to 80 degrees. Course conditions were good, too, so all around it was a great day for golf.

UPCOMING EVENTS

Our next event will be Saturday, May 18, at Castle Oaks. Castle Oaks is always one of the most popular events on our schedule. Renee has already sent out the entry form; early sign-ups are always appreciated. After Castle Oaks, we will be playing at Bing Maloney on Saturday, June 8. Both the Castle Oaks and Bing Maloney events will be NCGA qualifiers, too. One last bit of news: the Bing Maloney tournament will feature the first of our long-drive contests with prize money to the top male and female drivers. Hit the weight room now!

We have two mid-week events to announce:

Carson City on Tuesday, June 25 and Wednesday, June 26. Nick Schiaretta has sent out the event announcement and hotel reservation information. Our golf courses will be Eagle Valley East on the 25th and Eagle Valley West on the 26th. Let Nick know right away if you are interested in attending this event.

Saddle Creek on Wednesday, July 24. The cost is $72 per player and includes green fee, cart, range balls and a pulled pork luncheon buffet at the clubhouse after golf. Saddle Creek is a fun course to play—we've always had a great time there in previous years. As in past years, Vice-President Mike Morrow is handling the arrangements. Send him an email at morrowundesided@yahoo.com to let him know if you want to play.

HOLE-IN-ONE??

Most of us have come close to a hole in one, but it's hard to come closer than the shot delivered by our Handicap Chair, Dan Nelson. He was playing in a Sons in Retirement Branch 69 event at Alister MacKenzie on April 18. His tee shot on the par 3 #16 hole rolled right up to the edge of the cup and lingered right there. The rest of his foursome hit their shots and the guys headed to the green to see the results. Dan's ball was still overhanging the hole by about 1/4", but it wasn't in! He took an iPhone photo to record the event and tapped in for a birdie. The official measurement for the closest to the pin contest was 0' 0", but it wasn't a hole in one. Nice shot and bad luck, Dan.

TRGC WEBSITE

James Snyder continues to update our club website to show the 2019 tournament schedule and other current information, including the 2019 membership form and latest tournament results. As always, thanks, James for your work to give us a better website. Check it out at www.tworiversgolfclub.com

RECRUITMENT AND MEMBERSHIP RENEWAL

As always, TRGC is looking to increase its membership base, so be sure to invite your friends, co-workers, and golf buddies from other groups to play in our events. Per our club Secretary, Judy Davenport, we now have 86 members in the club. Good work on the recruiting, everyone.

SUNSHINE

Leo Winternitz underwent knee replacement surgery on April 11, so he will be out for a while. The upcoming surgery didn't stop Leo from playing at the Ancil tournament on April 8! Here's wishing you a speedy recovery, Leo. How 'bout some good news here? Brett and Ila Svobodny welcomed their son, Jordan James, on April 21. Congratulations to the Svobodny's!
